Genuine Nazi Medal

A genuine artefact of Adolf Hitler's Third Reich, distinguished by the notorious Swastika, the War Merit Medal was granted to civilians making an outstanding contribution to the war effort. Used to raise German morale, and often awarded to 'war factories' workers, this distinctive award also provided fuel for Goebbels' propaganda machine.

Mother's Cross

Reflecting the Nazi's fundamental belief in the importance of the role of mothers in the creation of a strong Germany, the Mother's Cross in Gold was granted to women who exhibited decency, excellent motherhood, and who raised at least eight children. A rare, fascinating, genuine artefact of Nazi ideology – seldom offered in this country.

Portrait of Evil

Although the portrait of Nazi Germany's leader Adolf Hitler never appeared on a coin, the Fuehrer's cold, hard features regularly adorned official philatelic issues of the Third Reich. Comprising NINETEEN Blocks of Four, this remarkably affordable collection is a fine illustration. Issued from 1941 to 1944, as the war slipped away from the Nazis, this collection is offered in Mint Unhinged condition.
